

The Marie Skłodowska-Curie Programme as a tool for bilateral cooperation between France and Brazil

Monday 23 March 2026 – 3.00–4.45 pm (Paris) – 11.00 am–12.45 pm (Brasília)

Institutional opening

Ministry of Higher Education, Research and Space (FR),

*Marie-Pierre Macian, Policy officer for South America, Delegation for European and International Affairs
Eugénia Shadlova, National Contact Point and Programme Committee Representative MSCA*

Brazilian National Council to State Funding Agencies,

Flavia Cerqueira, Advisor for International Cooperation, National Contact Point MSCA, CONFAP, (BR)

Brazilian Embassy in France,

Pedro Henrique de Sousa Zacarias, Head of the Educational Cooperation Department and Science, Technology and Innovation Department

The French Embassy's initiatives to support scientific cooperation

Eric Bourland, University Cooperation Officer – Campus France Brazil Coordinator

Presentation of the COFECUB programme (CAPES/COFECUB – USP/COFECUB)

Brazilian Federal Agency for Support and Evaluation of Graduate Education (CAPES),
Idelazil Talhavini, General Coordinator

French chair of the COFECUB Committee, Denis Rolland

Representative from the University of São Paulo (USP), Fernando Menezes de Almeida

Presentation of the MSCA programme as a tool for bilateral cooperation and the 2026 and 2027 calls for proposals

Eugénia Shadlova, National Contact Point and Programme Committee Representative MSCA, MESRE (FR)

Flavia Cerqueira, Advisor for International Cooperation, National Contact Point MSCA, CONFAP, (BR)

Testimonial from an MSCA award winner

Prof. M. Ichchou, Centrale Lyon, project MSCA Doctoral Networks “Sustainable and Reconfigurable Robots for green manufacturing/SUREROB”

Presentation of the Euraxess platform How do I find a host institution?

Charlotte Grawitz, Regional Coordinator for EURAXESS Latin America and the Caribbean

Questions & Answers

The webinar will be held in English, with the possibility of asking questions in French or Portuguese.